Plaintiff,

v.

GOOGLE INC.,

Defendant.

Case No. 3:10-cv-03561-WHA

THIRD AMENDED INITIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT OF
 GOOGLE INC.

Judge: Hon. William Alsup
 Date Comp. Filed: October 27, 2010

Trial Date: October 31, 2011

Defendant Google Inc. ("Google") provides this Amended Initial Disclosure Statement pursuant to Rule 26(a)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Google makes these disclosures based on its current knowledge, without the benefit of complete discovery in this action, and without waiver of attorney-client privilege, work product, common interest privilege, or any other privilege. Google's investigations are continuing and Google expressly reserves the right to amend or modify these disclosures in accordance with Rule 26 based on additional information obtained through formal discovery, continued investigation, or other means. Google further reserves the right to object on any applicable basis to the production of documents and things from the categories identified herein or the obtaining of testimony from the witnesses identified herein.

Subject to the foregoing, Google provides the following information and disclosures in accordance with subsections (i) through (iv) of Rule 26(a)(1)(A):

(i) In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(i), Google states as follows:

Based on information currently available to Google after reasonable investigation, the following entities and individuals may have discoverable information that Google may use to support its claims or defenses in this action. Google provides the following list without any concession, agreement, admission, or waiver of any ultimate determination of relevance or admissibility of particular information for any purpose, and without waiver of attorney-client privilege or work-product immunity, or any other privilege or immunity. Google reserves the right to amend or supplement this list of persons based on facts that may be disclosed during discovery.

(ii). In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(ii), Google states as follows:

Google identifies the following categories of documents, data compilations, and tangible things in its possession, custody or control that it may use to support its claims or defenses, unless solely for impeachment. By making this disclosure, Google does not represent that it is identifying every potentially relevant document or tangible thing upon which it may rely for purposes of this lawsuit. Continuing investigation and discovery may reveal additional relevant documents or tangible things, and Google reserves the right to supplement this disclosure accordingly. Google does not waive its right to object to the production of any particular document or tangible thing disclosed herein on the basis of any valid objections to its discoverability or admissibility.

1.  8 produced by Google.

 10 (iii). In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iii), Google states as follows:

11
 12 Google does not seek an award of damages in this matter and therefore believes that
 13 subsection (iii) of Rule 26(a)(1)(A) is not applicable to Google.

14 Google notes, however, that Google believes that this is an exceptional case and that it
 15 will be entitled to recover its attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285 and/or 17
 16 U.S.C. § 505. The amounts of such fees and costs cannot be computed or calculated until such 17 time as Google's entitlement to such an award has been determined.

18
 19 (iv). In accordance with Rule 26(a)(1)(A)(iv), Google states as follows:

20
 21 At this time, Google has not identified any applicable indemnity and insurance
 22 agreements under which an entity may be liable to satisfy part or all of any judgment that might
 23 be entered in this action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy any judgment
 24 that might be entered in this action.
